

The colours of the Highland Pony breed.

CHESTNUT

Photo supplied by Gemma Cee

Photo supplied by Gemma Cee

Whitefield Prince Woody in his winter coat and then summer coat

Photo supplied by Gilean Docherty

Tashieburn MacDuff in a winter coat

Photo supplied by Grace Troup, Rumach stud

Photo supplied by Grace Troup, Rumach stud

Whitefield Princes Zeppelin as a 2 year old and as a weanling

Photo supplied by Gilean Docherty

Tashieburn MacDuff as a yearling in a summer coat and as a foal.

Photo supplied by Gilean Docherty

Chestnut is a solid Red based pony with no dilution genes.
These ponies have to carry only recessive extension (Red).

The following are different colour genetic sequences for Chestnut pony;

ee AA or ee Aa